

THE COTSWOLDS DECORATIVE, ANTIQUES & ART FAIR

Westonbirt School, Westonbirt, Tetbury, Gloucestershire, GL8 6QG

3 – 5 January 2020

Asian Art Features at Westonbirt's Winter Decorative Antiques Fair

Asian art and antiques will be a major attraction at The Cotswolds Decorative, Antiques & Art Fair at Westonbirt School, near Tetbury, Gloucestershire from 3 – 5 January 2020.

Exhibitor Andy Lambert (left) trades as Fu Ts'ang Lung Oriental Antiques and will be showing a range of artifacts, art and collectables acquired during his travels in China and Tibet. Many have religious theme, others are decorative items, useful household pieces and works of art. As Andy will explain, the interest in Asian art is currently very high as more pieces emerge from the region and collectors and decorators begin to appreciate their appeal.

Also specializing in Asian art will be Paul Burnett of Paul Burnett Antiques & Interiors. Among decorative pieces, Paul also shows rare Chinese earthenware and pottery figures of horses, camels and tomb attendants. Amelie & Melanie Caswell from Bristol specialize in smaller Japanese collectables including carvings and jewellery.

Featuring art and antiques specialists from across the UK, this popular winter fair is the place to buy everything from the most traditional antique pieces to the latest in decorative chic style.

Says organiser Sue Ede: 'This is where people come to decorate and furnish their homes in their own personal style. The fair offers a special mix of decorative antique and 20th century pieces with fine art, collector's pieces and personal items such as jewellery, silver, watches and vintage fashion.'

There will be many highlights, such as a fabulous range of 20th century decorative ceramics by Somerset designer Sally Tuffin, from Brian Ashbee Antiques; vintage handbags and Hollywood style costume jewellery belonging to Twentieth Century Glamour and Modern British paintings from Granta Fine Art.

A decorative and historic Chinese carved wooden figure of Guanyin, the Goddess of Mercy. Measuring 30ins tall, carved circa 1860, still with much of its original decorative paintwork. To be shown by Fu Ts'ang Lung Oriental Antiques from Yorkshire. £480.

Specialising in decorative pieces will be Scandinavian by Design with Scandinavian furniture and lighting; King George Antiques, showing architectural salvage, furniture, mirrors, lighting and rugs; Paul Burnett Antiques & Interiors specialising in mirrors, lighting, antiquities and decorative silver and accessories; John Reed-Smith showing larger furniture and interior pieces; and Not Wanted on Voyage with Twentieth Century Designer pieces and paintings.

Cotswolds Decorative, Antiques & Art Fair takes place in the atmospheric setting of Westonbirt House, now a prestigious school, occupying the Great Hall, Orangery and adjoining rooms. Stylish antiques, superb paintings, decorative delights and all kinds of rare and unusual antique treasures go on sale with prices from less than £20 to more than £20,000. Approximately 40 dealers offer plenty of choice for interior designers and the seasoned and first-time collectors. In addition, there is a range of exquisite personal gifts including antique jewellery, watches, mid-20th century designer jewellery and accessories.
