Specialist Dealers Promise Spectacular Treasures at Chester's Autumn Antiques Fair

The Chester Decorative Antiques & Art Fair returns to the Grandstand Pavilion at Chester Racecourse from 20th – 22nd October 2023.

This popular autumn event is the most prestigious art and antiques event in the northwest of England. It brings together more than forty specialists with a wide variety of high-quality pieces for collectors, interior designers and occasional bargain hunters.

Says Sue Ede, the organiser: 'The Chester Fair has been running for more than 30 years and attracts customers from all over the country. Our exhibitors assemble a superb range of pieces which cannot be seen anywhere else. It's a must for anyone with an interest in the finest art, antiques and decorative pieces.'

Local dealers and galleries from Chester, Shropshire, Lancashire, Manchester and across the region take part. Prices range from less than £50 for unusual glass and silver, to more than £20,000 for the finest traditional and contemporary paintings and sculpture. Recent fairs have welcomed more specialists with Art Nouveau, Art Deco and 20th century modern art and designer glass, silver and ceramics. As usual, dealers will also be specialising in fine antique furniture, traditional silver, 19th and 20th century paintings, fine jewellery, antique glass, European bronzes, fine porcelain and unusual decorative items.

The fair runs daily and includes a restaurant for light lunches and refreshments.
